Seating configurations without limitations. Ranging from solitary armchairs to multi-seat combinations, from benches without backrest to endless seating rows, from angled configurations to screened seat islands and private work cubicles. This concept of linkable “contract sofas” opens up new exciting perspectives for the interior design of modern work environments.

These exceptional tables with matching slender and graceful design aesthetics are geared towards a multitude of environments, meeting all the functional requirements. This line-up is functionally complemented by stools, bar stools and benches. Also compatible with task chairs. The optional extras encompass rotating modesty and acoustic panels with the aim of zoning the table top surface.
